DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art hasn't taught a device for generating continuous positive airway pressure (CPAP device) in particular a nasal CPAP device that includes the combination of a hollow body in which an overpressure can be built up, a first opening provided in a first side wall of the hollow body and used for introduction of a respiratory gas flow under overpressure and directed into the hollow body as well as for removal of the exhaled respiratory gas flow, and an attachment piece which can be fitted on the hollow body in order to connect the hollow body to a nosepiece and/or mouthpiece. Lastly this combination is also includes a second opening provided in a second side wall of the hollow body and used for introduction of a medicament flow directed into the hollow body.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
